The Class of 2008
is pleased to dedicate this year's Proctorian to
Mr. Aaron Audet

If anyone has ever been in one of Mr. Audet's music classes, whether it be concert band, jazz band, rock band or music theory, his devotion to music and his students is unmistakable. He loves what he does and it shows. He expects a lot from his band members, but it's the fun times that are always remembered in the stories. And oh, the stories he could tell from 9 years of performances and parades! In addition to teaching, each year he organizes the Proctor Community Talent Show and, with the assistance of his band students, hosts district music auditions. Outside of the area of music, you might find him chaperoning trips to New York City, the GAPP trip to Germany, or the Spanish class trip to Spain. He's always up for a good field trip. After school each spring you'll have to look for him on the baseball field. Mr. Audet coached varsity baseball for our first years at high school and now coaches middle school. He has put so much time and energy into the class of 2008 with rock band fund-raisers over the years. No wonder he was voted "Outstanding New Music Educator" of 2003 by the Vermont Music Educator's Association! A warning for all you future music students- watch out for the white board erasers!

Thank you from the Class of 2008 for all of your support over the years!

...A LOOK INTO THE FUTURE

Courtney Bradish: Wins Top Chef Season 9 which leads to the start of her own show "Feel the Burn".

Whitney Carmen: Invents a high heeled shoe, which allows you to change its height with the mere push of a button, from flats to 10".

Chrystal Gioffi: Gets noticed by a major movie producer while working as a back up dancer on the latest LiL Wayne video and heads to Hollywood.

Ryan Connell: Can't get enough of a good thing; he replaces Mr. Mott teaching history at PHS, takes on the role of A.D. (including playing a little ping pong on the side) and eventually becomes Principal so he can keep the doors of PHS open and preserve the Phantom-Horde rivalry.

Krisaundra Crowningshield: Becomes a famous beautician/make-up artist to the stars while owning her own Beauty Parlor.

Samuel Davine: Is honorably discharged with the Congressional Medal of Honor after his tour of duty with the U.S. Marine Corps, then goes on to become a very successful solo artist.

Alyssa deLancey: Works with Kat Von D as a tattoo artist at L.A. Ink making her artwork permanent, and adopts an Asian baby.

Brittany Dumas: Moves from city to city opening her own animal sanctuaries for abused and abandoned animals, while fighting for animal rights.

Adam Falco: Becomes a politician and runs for president, loses, and starts his own country called Adamerica.

Stephanie Hathaway: Becomes a world renowned mixologist by opening a chain of Coyote Ugly establishments throughout New England.

Luke Holland: Finds an underground route to Canada.

Kristen Kellogg: Becomes a crazy cat lady with cats, stuffed cats, and even cats mounted on her walls!

Keith Lavoie: Becomes fed up with society and moves into the forest, spending his days throwing rocks and sleeping.

Megan Leonardo: Has her own reality TV show on TLC about life as a mortician cosmetologist.

Richard Maass: Becomes the spokes person and top model for "Lean Cuisine".

Kayla Mahoney: After a successful nursing career, she becomes an overnight sensation, known for her book entitled "Laughter really IS the best medicine, LOL!" based on a lifetime of research.

Katherine McCormack: After completing her Pharm.D. she discovers her love of dogs supersedes her love of chemistry and opens her own "Proctor Pooch Parlor".

Kyle McQuarrie: His youth basketball camp goes national, netting him enough paper to treat the class of '08 to a class reunion in Florida.

Ellen Merritt: Becomes the star in VH1's newest hit series, replacing "I Love New York" with "Life In the Shoes of Ellen" where she searches for her true love.

Drew Pilcher: Becomes more famous than Einstein for his inventions.

Elizabeth Sander: While in Africa ending world hunger she discovers a plant which contains the cure for Cancer.

Kyle Schaner: Owns the biggest Deer Jerky producing plant in New England.

Jordan Snow: Invents a new headphone media player called the J-Now, that allows you to listen to a song by merely thinking of it.

Bobbi-Su Swenor: Joins the Air Force and realizes that you can survive with only 3 pairs of shoes in life.

Hillary Tabor: While nursing her cancer patients back to health a local music producer, stricken with the disease, hears her singing on the job and immediately offers her a record deal.

Jacob Tanner: Coaches for the Dallas Cowboys and leads them to their 8th super bowl victory.

Rebecca Thibault: Develops the technology that allows web surfers to experience the sense of smell when visiting a web site.

Kelly Toher: Earns millions a day by creating a new breed of huge hunter-jumper horses, and donates some of her millions to 4-H programs.

Michael Watson: Becomes the next host of the hit show "Pimp my Ride" on MTV.

Rock Band

The Rock Band plays a wide variety of rock music. Concerts, coffee houses, and school tours are preformed. This year, members of the Rock Band have formed "The Proctor Connection" and have ventured into the mainstream with regularly paid gigs. They were joined by Myk Sno for a Music Boosters fund-raiser at the Brick Box. In addition to performing, the band spends time recording songs using the recording studio in the music room. They end the year with a full length concert at the Paramount Theatre.

Chorus

The High School Chorus rehearses a variety of music ranging from traditional chorus music to modern classical and musical theater. The group performs for the Winter Choral Concert and the Spring Concert. Members of the choir are also encouraged to audition for District, All-State, and New England Choirs. This year Cliff Billings was accepted to the All New England Choir.

Concert Band

The Junior High Band includes students in grades 7 & 8. Students work on basic skills and become more familiar and comfortable with their instruments. They work on tone quality, playing in tune, learning different time signatures and becoming better at more difficult rhythms. Musical selections include marches, popular music, show music and more. The band participates in all parades and winter and spring concerts.

V.T.L.S.P./S.A.D.D.

Vermont Teen Leadership Safety Program / Students Against Destructive Decisions is a statewide initiative whose purpose is to support Vermont teens making healthy choices. It provides them with adult support; knowledge of issues such as alcohol/other drug use, traffic safety, risk taking behaviors; and leadership skills to promote a healthy, safe lifestyle among their peers. Cliff Billings serves as our school's representative to the Youth Advisory Council. As a "YAC", Cliff helps set the agenda for state programs and helps plan meetings including the Governor's Youth Leadership Conference.

Middle School Peer Leaders

Middle School Peer Leaders are members of VKAT (Vermont Kids Against Tobacco). In addition to assisting High School Peer Leaders in organizing Red Ribbon Week they participated in Green Mountain Institute's fall conference where they presented their Haunted Hall of Horror. They attended the State House Rally and held monthly activities for the student body.

R.C.Y.C.

The Rutland County Youth Council is a group of teen leaders working together to provide resources, support and encouragement to create a peaceful, tolerant and healthy environment for teens by empowering them to develop positive activities that instill a lasting respect for diversity, primarily through media, by producing and starring in commercials promoting substance-free living; and Youth Initiated Grants, by which RCYC members review proposals and determine how to distribute monies to fund local youth-oriented projects and events.

National Honor Society

Membership in the Redfield Proctor Chapter of the National Honor Society is the highest academic honor the faculty can bestow upon students in grades 11 & 12. In order to be eligible for consideration, a student must demonstrate excellence in Scholarship, Leadership, Service and Character. The group completes both individual and group service projects throughout the year. Group projects include reading to elementary students during Dr. Seuss' birthday and providing free childcare for town meetings.

High School Peer Leaders

The Peer Leaders are students committed to promoting healthy lifestyles at Proctor High School. The Peer Leaders represent an "umbrella" organization of many helping groups within the school. Groups focus on bullying and harassment issues, making healthy choices, prevention of drug, alcohol, and tobacco use, and service to the school and community. Peer Leaders are affiliated with OVX (Our Voices Exposed) and VTLS/P/SADD. Peer Leaders sponsor Red Ribbon Week and this year decided to provide monthly activities on weekends such as movie night, game night, dances, and an ice cream social.

Middle School Geography Bee

The National Geography Bee involves seventh and eighth grade students. The elimination rounds take place here at PHS where students compete to represent us at the state level. Sarah Jalbert won the elimination rounds and did an excellent job representing our school at Middlebury College. Mrs. Dowling and three of her classmates (Olivia Cipriani, John Connell and Ashley Cook, who were school finalists) traveled to Middlebury to support Sarah.

Upward Bound

High school students participate in the program Upward Bound at Castleton State College. The program is funded by a federal grant that offers a challenging pre-college experience to high school students with academic potential. The goal of Upward Bound is to help the students get a general idea of what college life is about. Students meet regularly during the school year for tutoring and once a month as a whole group with students from other schools. During the summer the students participate in a six-week residence at CSC.

Art Club

Members of the art club have been hard at work constructing a large mosaic mural to adorn the main hallway. The mosaic will represent a student surrounded by symbols of school subjects. The top of the mural is decorated with a large maple tree with fall colored leaves to represent Vermont. In addition to the mural students have participated in activities that range from making tie-dye T-shirts to candles.

U.S. History Club

The U.S. History Club is open to students who are taking or have taken U. S. History. The primary focus is to encourage student interest in history through attending local programs and to encourage attendance / participation in Vermont History Day. Members also have opportunities to explore history through travel experiences. This year students went to Hyde Park, New York to visit the Franklin Roosevelt library and museum as well as the Vanderbilt Mansion. They also spent three days in New York City where they toured among other sites: the Statue of Liberty, Ellis Island, the U.N., the Empire State Building, and the Museum of the City of New York. They also saw a Broadway play.

GAPP Trip

Germany 2007

This summer Kyle Baccei, Gabby Walker, Liz Sander, Jacob Tanner, Megan Knowles, Ryan Connell, Katie McCormack, Richard Maass, Kelsey McCormack, Hillary Tabor, Kelly Toher, and Adam Falco traveled to Germany accompanied by German teacher Frau Burke and music teacher Mr. Audet, who only knew how to say "Danke!"

The first two weeks were spent in the city of Weimar, living with host families and attending school daily. During their stay they learned local customs, enjoyed the park, ate lots of ice cream, swam, played poker, had a basketball tournament, and went bowling. They also had the opportunity to visit the concentration camp Buchenwald, the Wartburg Castle (some got to ride donkeys), and to walk in Napoleon Bonaparte's footsteps.

They saw the German play "Im Auge des Sturms".

After two weeks in Weimar, they took a long train ride to Munich, Germany. There they toured the Olympic Park, waited for the under construction Glockenspiel to play, visited the Neuschwanstein Castle, and terrorized Kyle and Kelly (who are afraid of heights) by riding the Tegelbahn to see the view of the Alps. They also went to Salzburg, Austria for a day where they toured underground salt mines, got wet at Hellbrunn Castle, walked around Mirabell Gardens and saw various sites of "The Sound of Music". After being away from home since June 10, they boarded their Lufthansa flight and safely arrived home on July 1, 2007.

WINTER CARNIVAL

First Place

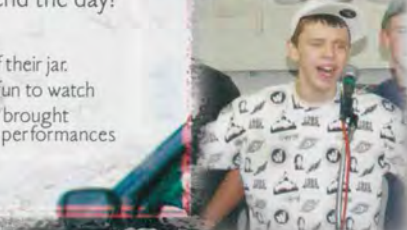

What did you expect?

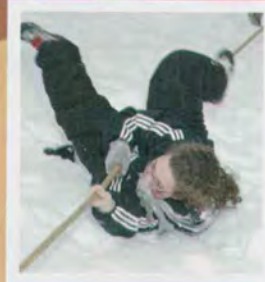

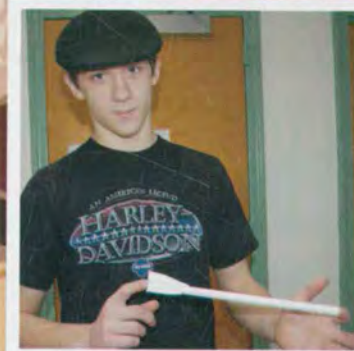

During Winter Carnival week, we lost only a tiny bit of momentum with a snow day midweek, canceling twin & and clash day. It gave students an extra day to gather pennies and silver coins for the highly competitive penny war that raised $22014 for the Leukemia/Lymphoma Society. On Winter Carnival day, the weather kept the ice games out of the picture once again. It's been so long since we've had ice at Winter Carnival (winter 2005) that students didn't even seem disappointed that the skating rink wasn't a part of the mix. Instead their attention was focused on snow kickball, the ever popular tug-of-war, karaoke, Crack Attack (an addictive computer game), orange relays, balloon hats, and more. Even Mr. Mott tried his hand at the medicine ball toss!! New additions to the list of head to head competition included electronic darts and the wildly entertaining chariot races. What a great way to end the day!

Top 3 memorable events of the week:

- #3 - The penny war - Too bad the Juniors had trouble keeping track of their jar.
- #2 - Chariot races - highly competitive, a bit dangerous, and tons of fun to watch
- #1 - Brad Mullan's karaoke version of Man, I Feel Like A Woman - He brought the house down with one of the most entertaining karaoke performances in Proctor history!

Mr. Mott was trapped in his classroom with World History students when his door refused to open.

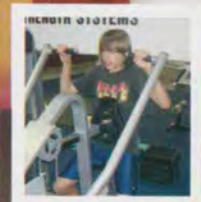

Proctor students were reunited with their GAPP partners from Weimar, Germany for an eighteen day visit in October. Between chanting "PROCTOR" at soccer games and attending school, they visited the Vermont Teddy Bear Factory, Shelburne Museum, Fort Ticonderoga, VINS, Maple Museum, Proctor museums, and saw the views from Killington. They baked apple pies for their host families, got lost in the corn maze, and had a pumpkin carving contest.

During Red Ribbon Week, the juniors and seniors worked their way through an obstacle course on scooters and tricycles while wearing "drunk" goggles providing them with a way to feel what it is like to walk and drive while intoxicated. Students were entertained by Double Vision, a acrobatic duo, who presented a show on the "balancing act" involved with making healthy decisions. William Harris, a motivational speaker, talked about making good choices. Other events during the week included a parent information night, bulb planting and relay races for middle schoolers, and a movie with discussion for 9th and 10th graders. The 9th grade won an ice cream party for their class by wearing their red ribbon bracelets all week long.

John Halligan talked to us at the Paramount theater about bullying and harassment. He shared the very memorable story of his son Ryan. Some students were so touched by his story that they gathered $ to be donated to the schooling of Ryan's young brother. Mr. Halligan was touched and asked that the $35 collected instead be donated to Parent To Parent, an organization that supports parents of special needs kids.

Ms. Corey's PE Class went on a field trip to Vermont Sport and Fitness Center where they learned about some of the newest fitness equipment available and were given time to try it out.

In an Independent Study with Mr. Cook, Cody Green created this amazing butcher's block.

VKAT students started the year with a trip to Hathaway's Corn Maze in Pittsford.

The computer lab was packed with people, noise, and popcorn as the Varsity Boys and friends gathered for the Westside vs. Danville semifinal game streamed over the Internet.

The Varsity Boys Basketball team 3-peated in Barre taking the Division IV Championship Title once again. This year's win against Danville retired the State D4 floating trophy (by winning 3 straight championships) and it will now remain in Proctor's trophy case forever.

The National Honor Society Induction Ceremony was held on chilly January 3rd in the evening. The inductees were juniors Kyle Baccei, Claire Cipriani, Becca Hall, Kelsey McCormack, Amy Moore, and Tori Scarzello. Mr. John Zawistoski was the keynote speaker.

Year In Review

The 1st Annual Golden Phantom Game was played on March 14th. Staff from PHS and WRS took on a combined senior team. Despite some 'interesting' calls and plays, the seniors prevailed and it's hard to say who had more fun, players or fans!! $324.20 was raised for each school to create a scholarship for a graduating senior.

Karen Amirault taught hiphopdance to Ms. Corey's PE students. In the afternoon she was joined by her dance company and the school was treated to a performance which involved some audience participation.

Phantom Theatre presented Sorry, Wrong Number by Lucille Fletcher in front of the Proctor community and at the One Act Festival. They received numerous awards including one for Theatrical Style/Dramatic Irony. Cliff Billings directed the production.

The 8th grade went to the Lake Champlain Maritime Museum in Vergennes where they learned what the early battles of the Revolution were like on the lake. Students got to experience boat making and trimming the sails on a boat. They saw a short film of how Benedict Arnold was instrumental for the success of the Northern Campaign of the American Revolution (before he ever thought of being a traitor!)

Ms. Russo's C. period class filled an entire window with Vitamin Water labels in between learning some Algebra II.

Flour Babies graced our presence as students in Mrs. McCullough's Family Development Class learned about childcare and the expenses involved in raising children.

Kristen,

In a blink you became a beautiful young lady. As you embrace your future, may you do so with confidence and determination. During these past few years you have taken a few detours, but it has been those detours that have prepared you for the rest of your life. Be proud of what you have accomplished. You have an incredible willpower that never ceases to amaze us. Go forward, live life, and have fun!! We could never be more proud of you.

All our love,

Mom, Dad & Carlton

Adam-

While you've accomplished
many things,
we're most proud of who you are.

We know you'll be successful at whatever you decide to do.

We love you!

No one could ask for a better son. Your commitment and hard work is paying off. Even as a young boy you showed such determination. Over the years you have set numerous goals for yourself and we have watched your dreams come true. I know that you will succeed in whatever path you choose for your future. Thanks for the memories both on and off the court. Looking forward to the next phase of your journey. Good luck next year.

Raising a teenager is like nailing jello to a tree. You can hope for a secure future but eventually it's out of your hands. Keep doing what you're doing. Question authority. Think twice and give more good than you get. What goes around comes back around. Your family is proud of you!

Hillary,

We are so excited for you.
Your future is so bright.
Continue to be the strong young woman you have become.

Love,
Mom, Dad, & Emily

Jordan,

We are all so proud of you! Not only are you a talented musician, but you are a wonderful athlete, a true friend, a helpful and thoughtful student (always willing to wander the building at the drop of a hat...) and the best son we could have ever hoped for...

We know that you will be successful in whatever endeavor you attempt and that you will continue to be a good friend and mentor to all with whom you come in contact.

Love, Mom and Dad,
your grandparents,
your many aunts and uncles and cousins

Sammy D. You have braved more "storms" than most do in a lifetime... and you have weathered them well! I'm so proud you're my son. Sammy, you have brought me true happiness over the years and that is what I wish for you and your future in life. With your amazing talent, strength, courage and wisdom you will go far in life, just believe in yourself. I thank you for always being by my side in life and I will cherish all the happy memories we have and we do have many! May life be good to you Sammy D.

Katie,

Rascal Flatts said it best:

"My wish, for you,
is that life becomes all that you want it to,
Your dreams stay big,
and your worries stay small,
You never need to carry more than you can hold,
And while you're out there getting where you're getting to,
I hope you know somebody loves you,
and wants the same things too,
Yeah, this, is my wish."

Your smile lights up every room you enter. You bring laughter and joy wherever you go. You are smart and strong and confident. We have no doubt that you will make all your dreams come true.

Love,
Mom and Dad,

Yearbook

Behind the Scenes

Stephanie - our official music mixer - some goldfish for you...

We've become known for our fun books filled with great themes as we share the school year with you each year. It's time for something DIFFERENT. This year, we've switched things up a bit and have broken tradition. No crazy theme to try to top or tie previous years; just a beautiful more traditional classic book to celebrate a good school year.

COVER ART: Have you ever seen the design on our front cover before? We thought it had a classy look to it when we discovered it in various old yearbooks and we set out on a quest to discover if the design had any meaning. It turns out it did! It's the family crest for the Proctor family who originally founded both our town and our school. Pretty cool, huh? We thought so.

Ad Day - we broke tradition this year (sorry Ramontos, maybe we'll be back next year) and gathered at Friendly's to talk about our morning and plan our attack for the afternoon. And, of course, Kyle sold Friendly's an ad while we were there!

Kyle - our collage builder guru, playing a little guitar hero at our after school work party... lots of pizza, candy, soda (anybody want some orange???) and a little yearbook on the side!

Chrystal poses for the camera while waiting for a business to answer the phone so she can sell them an ad.

Becky - our ad designer

Kelly - our business manager and no, she is NOT sleeping in every photo that she's ever been in... she just is one of those people whose eyes close every time she smiles unless someone like Hillary is there to help.

Keith - our page layout guy - keeps others from seeing his computer while working on yearbook outside of yearbook class when he doesn't have the luxury of a locked door, the covered window and our secret knock...

knock, knock, BANG!

Thanks To: Mr. Bouchard, Mr. Traska, Chris Thayer, Kyle Bacci, Keegan Burnham, Greg Elrick, and any others who either contributed photos or covered events on our behalf.

And lastly, how about one more round of Colby Calliat's Bubbly for the road. That song will forever remind me of yearbook '08.

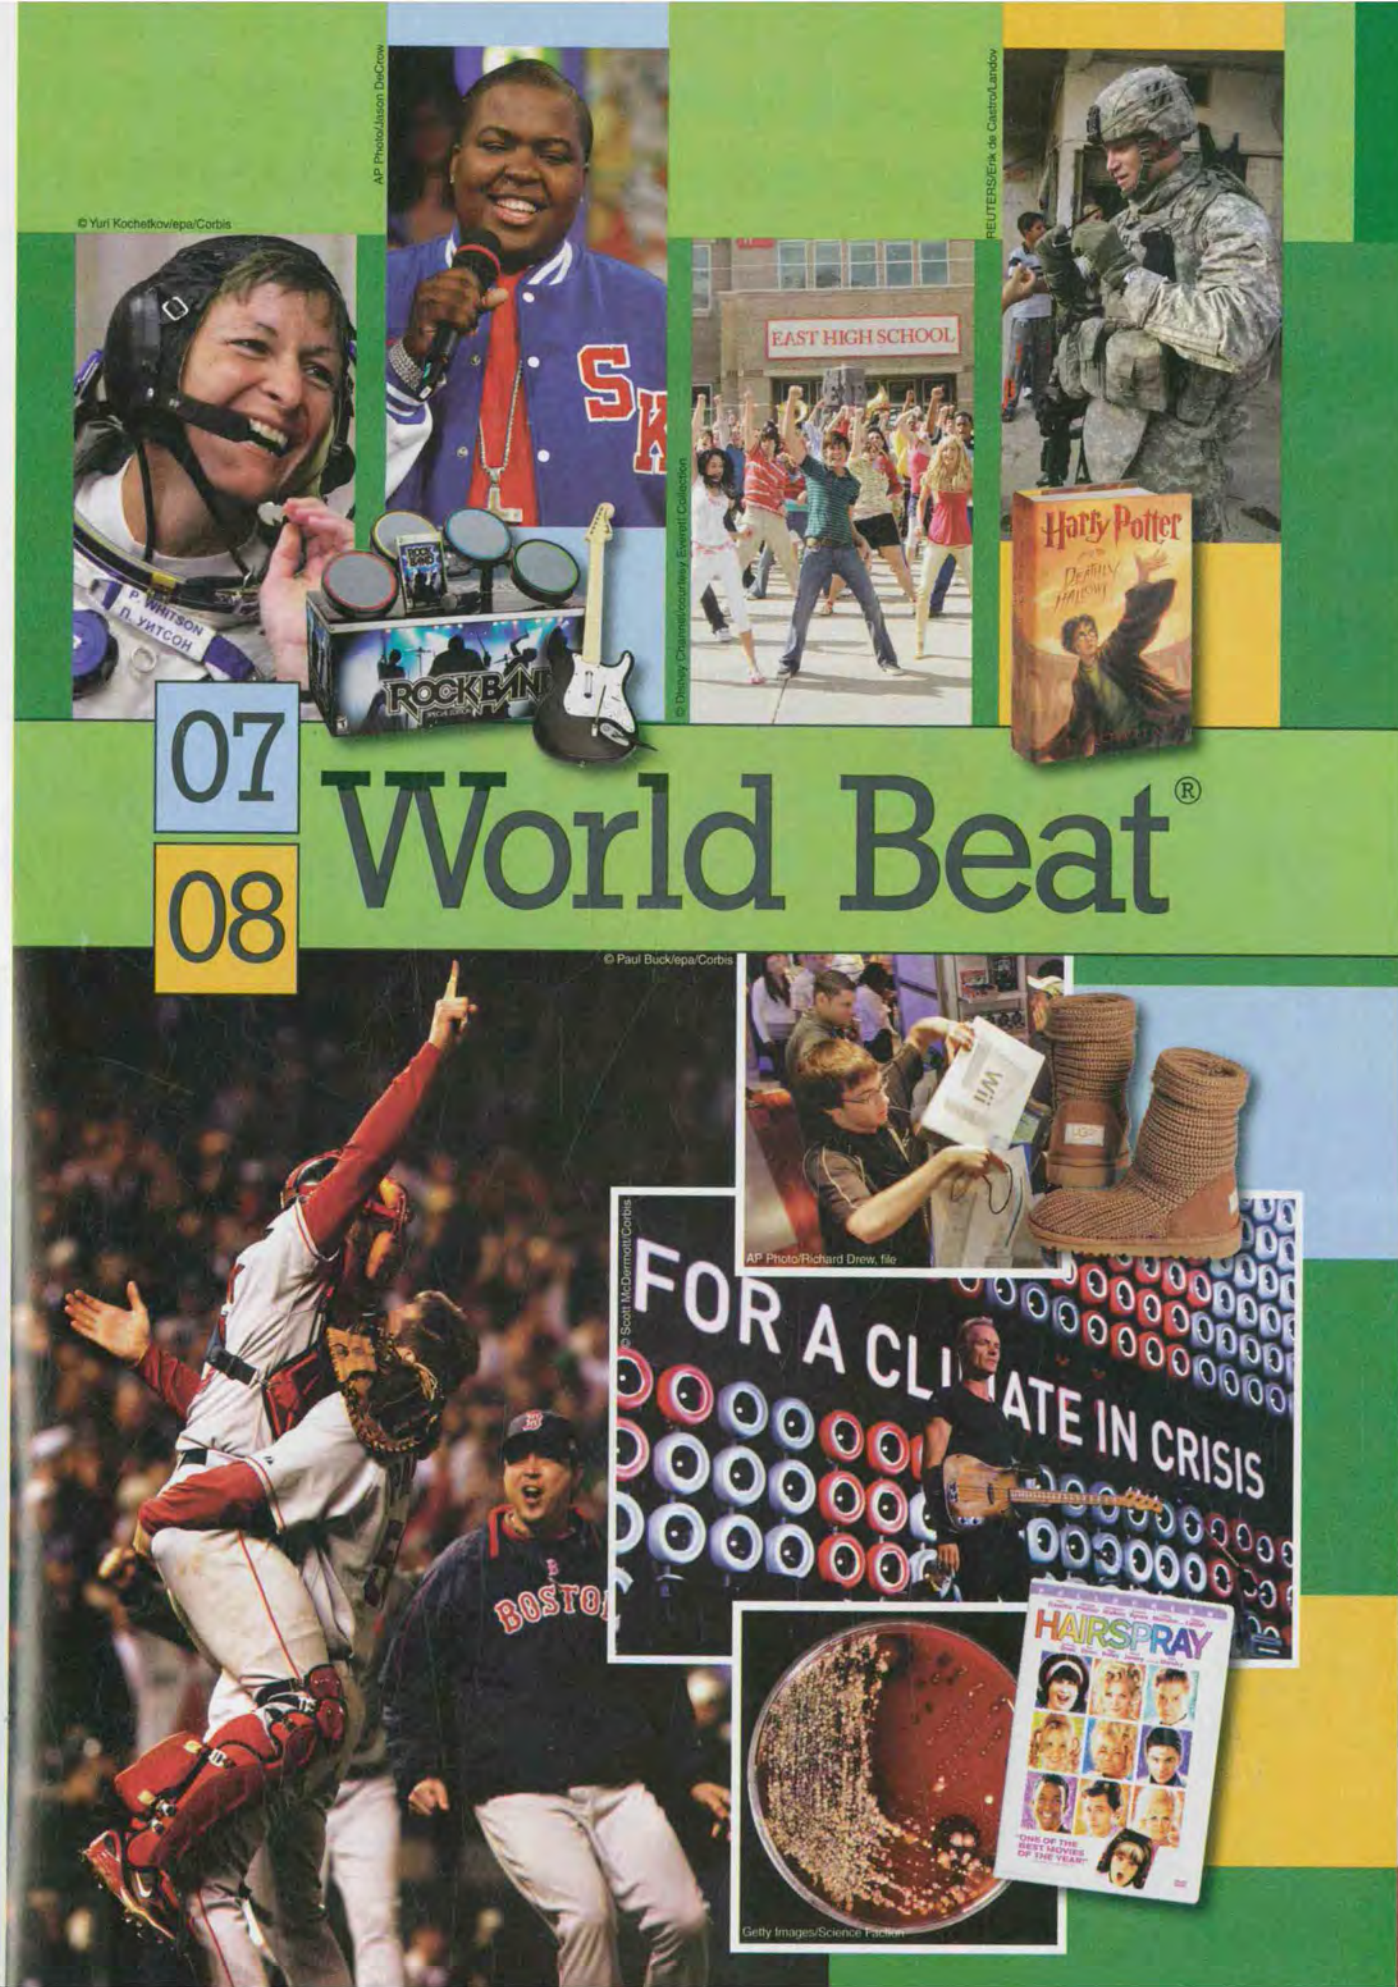

"OK, all together now... Kyle, Keith - got the lyrics up this time?"

♪ been awake for a while now... every time i see your bubbly face...

starts in my toes, makes me crinkle my nose. i jussssst, mmmmm...

For those of you staff members who begged to have Flava Flav in the book this year... here he is... not as "missing from photo", not in every collage... but I squeezed him in just for YOU. Somehow he just didn't FIT with our theme "classic professional"...
